THE WORST DISASTER SINCE MAINE BLEW UP

Scores Killed and Mangled on Gunboat
Bennington Yesterday.

BODIES CANNOT BE IDENTIFIED---
OTHER DEATHS ARE EXPECTED

Every Man Aboard Was Either Killed or Injured---
Cause of Disaster Unknown.

San Diego, Cal., July 22.—Blackened, torn and almost dismantled the gunboat Bennington, ripped asunder yesterday by an explosion of boilers, this morning on the harbor beach while 85 of her crew lay swathed in bandages in the hospitals and homes of San Diego.

All night divers worked steadily to recover from the twisted and torn interior of the ship bodies of the crew. The heroic work of survivors whose discipline is unshaken by the terrible accident, is the subject of much comment. Of the dead 18 are identified, and 19 unidentified.

It is believed that twelve or fifteen of the missing sailors are still in the coal bunker.

No theory as to the cause of the disaster is offered. Commander Lucien Young, who is from Kentucky, admits that the boilers were old, and needed repairs, but declares that they were perfectly safe.

Burying the Dead.

Washington, D. C., July 22.—The following dispatch was received at the navy department from Commander Young, of the Bennington: "Arrangements are being made to bury the dead at Fort Rosecrans, Sunday afternoon. Several bodies are pinned under the boiler and covered by water. I have engaged a fire engine to pump out and assist in their recovery. I am also cutting away the steel bulkheads in order to get at them. Everything possible is being done for the living and dead."

Explosion Was Terrible.

San Diego, Cal., July 22.—As a result of a frightful explosion of one of the main boilers on the United States gunboat Bennington in San Diego harbor shortly before noon yesterday 27 bodies are at the morgues and between 60 and 70 men are at hospitals, many of whom will die. Total deaths probably will be nearly 60. The warship was badly shattered, a great hole being torn in her stern and she has been beached to prevent her sinking.

The explosion is believed to have been in boilers which for many months has been regarded as weak, though an inspection made a year ago resulted in a favorable report. The ship was going up stream, preparatory to towing the disabled Wyoming to Mare Island. Every seaman on board was either killed or seriously or slightly wounded.

List of the Dead.

San Diego, Cal. July 22.—Twenty-eight dead bodies are lying at morgues, on piers and on the deck of the ill-fated Bennington, scores of men are lying gravely or painfully injured in sanitariums and hospitals, and fifteen sailors are missing and probably have found death in the waters of the harbor. Dead: J. Newcomb, drowned, boatswain's mate, second class; B. A. Hughes, E. Dresch, ordinary seamen; G. Brownlee, seaman; J. L. Burns, seaman; M. G. Guinn, W. W. Wright, officers; C. Hoggboom, A. Bensel, A. Kamer-

A Paducah Infant Said To Be In a Cincinnati "Baby Farm" Just Discovered

Cincinnati, O., July 22.—The hot weather of the present week has precipitated complaint, long pending, to the police regarding what is claimed to be a "baby farm" within a square of police headquarters. In a primitive two-story brick building at 424 West Eighth street rented by a colored woman, there are said to be fourteen babies, black and white. The appeal was made by Dr. William Klayser, who lives next door. He said the babies fretted and worried continually, crying and sobbing from the terrible heat, the torture of flies by day, the sting of mosquitoes by night. Worn-out neighbors, he said, had a double trouble to get to sleep.

While investigating the police learned of the history of several of the babies. There is one baby that comes from Paducah, Ky. It is of wealthy parents. There is another infant at the place that is said to be the child of the housekeeper of a well-to-do citizen of Cincinnati.

WEEK'S NEWS IN THE COMMERCIAL WORLD

Bank clearings this week. $624,625
Same week last year. . . . . 641,611

The hot weather of the past week stimulated the movement of goods from retailers and strengthened the outlook for fall trade. Local wholesalers report very fair business but local manufacturing plants are running with reduced forces. Promise for fall are very good for all lines of business.

Crop conditions are fair except with tobacco. There are many complaints freighting.

R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says:

Hot weather tended to retard activity in many productive undertakings and postponed forward what could be delayed without loss, but accelerated the consumption of seasonable merchandise and advanced the crops much nearer maturity. Confidence in the future increases with each day favorable for harvesting, and much of the winter wheat is now regaining lost ground.

Inquiries indicate a general disposition to provide for a large volume of fall and winter business, clothing manufacturers securing liberal orders from traveling salesmen, while cancellations are exceptionally few. Real estate transfers are large and building operations numerous, overtaxing facilities for delivery of lumber and other materials.

Cotton manufacturers are good, but the price fluctuations have an unsettling effect. Railway earnings thus far reported for July exceed last year's by 78.4 per cent and foreign commerce at this port alone for the week shows gains of $2,105,120 in exports and $2,667,648 in imports as compared with the corresponding week in 1904.

RAN BOAT AGROUND.

New York Man Adopted Heroic Measures to Prevent a Panic.

New York, July 22.—The excursion steamer Sirius was deliberately run aground off North Brother Island yesterday to avoid a panic among her 1,000 passengers, and a possible repetition of the Slocum disaster.

The Sirius, carrying a Sunday school picnic, stove in her side on a rock near the very spot where the Slocum burned last year. Although Capt. Pearce did not believe his ship would sink, he ran her aground with all possible dispatch and emptied the crowded decks with the aid of small boats.

Another boat took the excursionists to their picnic grounds and tugs were sent to the disabled Sirius.

After being aground about three hours the excursion boat floated with the rising tide without the necessity of assistance. One bulkhead was found to have filled, but the Sirius was able to proceed to her dock under her own steam.

HORRIBLE SUICIDE.

Young Girl Soaks Herself in Kerosene.

South Haven, Mich., July 22.—Disappointed in love, Lucy Monroe, the 18-year-old daughter of a banker, went into the orchard on her father's estate, last night, soaked her clothing with kerosene, applied a match and was burned to a crisp when found.

Balfour to Stand Pat.

London, July 22.—It is understood that Premier Balfour has decided to remain in office until the end of the session and to dissolve parliament in October.

No authoritative statement, however, will be made until Monday, and in the interval this decision may be modified.

A Terrible Hail Storm.

Lexington, Ky., July 22.—One of the most terrific hail storms ever experienced in Central Kentucky passed over Woodford, Scott and the western edge of Fayette counties yesterday. Tobacco and fruit trees were badly damaged.

Murdered Insane Patient.

Traverse City, Mich., July 22.—Mrs. Mary Larkins, a patient at the State Insane Asylum here was murdered by Mrs. Ernestine Berge, another patient, while the attendant was absent from the room for a few moments attending another patient. Her head was crushed.

A HOSPITAL FUND FOR CITY EMPLOYEES

It is Proposed to Pay Monthly
dues Like I. C. Men.

It Will Give All Employees a Good Place to Go When They Become Ill.

AND HE WILL BE ENTITLED TO IT

A number of city officials and employees have set on foot a plan that promises to become quite popular with every man connected with the government.

It is to establish a hospital fund, as the Illinois Central employees have, by paying to the city every month one per cent. of his or her salary for the maintenance of the city hospital. For instance if a man gets $100 a month, he will pay a dollar towards the hospital fund, and if he draws a salary of $50, he will pay only fifty cents dues.

They all understand that they do not have to do this. The city hospital is free to those who want to go there, and if any city official or employee wants to go there and is not able to pay, he can do so without paying a cent and without having a hospital fund.

They seem to want to establish this fund, however, and become independent. Unfortunately the impression has long prevailed that no one goes to a city hospital who has any other place to go, and the city officials and employees want to do all they possibly can to do away with this idea.

They will feel like they are entitled to all the benefits of the new hospital, by paying a small amount a month, and when they get sick and go there, will not feel like charity patients. Many of the city officials would have to pay to go to the hospital as they are able to do so and those who are able to pay are expected to pay.

The hospital fund, however, promises to meet with the approval of everybody, and it has done so thus far. One of the main promoters of the plan is Supt. J. O. Kebbler, of the city light plant. He has a petition or agreement which he is having all officials and employees sign, asking the city to provide for the fund detailed above.

Something definite will be done in a few days.

YELLOW FEVER BREAKS OUT IN NEW ORLEANS.

The Sun this morning received the following private dispatch from a former resident of Paducah, now in Jackson, Miss.:

"Yellow fever has appeared at New Orleans, and it is reported that there are sixty cases, and have been nineteen deaths."

Dr. Hunter, of the state board of health of Mississippi, will quarantine all passengers in Mississippi tonight at 11 o'clock."

BRITT WON.

He is Still Light Weight Champion—
Bout Went the Full 20
Rounds.

San Francisco, July 22.—Jimmy Britt is still lightweight champion of the world. He was awarded the decision over "Kid" Sullivan last night in a twenty-round contest in which Britt was the bright and shining star. He outpointed Sullivan in nearly every round, and although he did not knock out the husky youngster from Washington, he demonstrated beyond all doubt his superiority.

In the final round both men appeared as fresh as early in the fight and fought like wildcats through to the end. Sullivan was bleeding freely at the close of the round. Britt was given the decision.

Discovered Mutiny Plot.

St. Petersburg, July 22.—Orders have been issued for Cossacks to replace the marines who have been guarding the Kolpino works outside St. Petersburg. The change was made owing to the discovery of a plot on part of the marines to mutiny.

GASOLINE TANK

Explodes and One is Killed and Several Hurt.

Indianapolis, Ind., July 22.—The burned body of 14-year-old Olive Johnson, of Lima, Ohio, and five other persons suffering from burns and bruises were dragged from beneath a burning automobile, which plunged into a ditch on the river road about a half mile east of Broad Ripple, seven miles northeast of this city last night, exploding the gasoline storage tank. C. O. Dale, of this city, who was driving the machine, is seriously burned. The others who sustained severe burns and bruises were:

Clara Brenlen, Muncie, Ind.
Ethel Jones, Shelbyville, Ind.
Inez Brennan.
Hazel Orr, both of this city.

The party was speeding along the river road leading east from Broad Ripple when the machine struck a rut. The forward wheels were sent into the ditch, overturning the machine and throwing the occupants underneath.

From the tall light the gasoline was ignited and two explosions followed, throwing burning oil over the young people pinioned beneath the machine.

CORTLEYOU WILL RESIGN.

Then Harry New Will Be Acting
Chairman of Republican National Committee.

New York, July 22.—A Washington special to the Herald says: Postmaster General Cortleyou proposes to resign his position as chairman of the Republican national committee in about three weeks. This was authoritatively learned here today. Col. Harry New, of Indiana, vice chairman, will then be acting chairman until the next national campaign. With Elmer Dover, secretary of the committee, Mr. Cortleyou is now engaged in winding up some routine business left over from the campaign last year.

DRESSED LIKE MAN.

Chattanooga Woman Outwitted Officers and Escaped.

Chattanooga, Tenn., July 22.—Mrs. A. S. Chrisman donned man's apparel and left town to escape a warrant from the sheriff's office charging her with concealing assets. She had previously filed a petition in bankruptcy alleging that she had no money. It is claimed that it was learned afterwards that she had a large amount of money in a local bank.

Two officers were stationed to guard her house, but late in the afternoon the woman, it is said, walked out past the officers in man's apparel. They did not detect the fraud until some little time after. She has left the city it is thought with the money from the bank.

ABOUT NOV. 13

President Will Call An Extra Session.

Oyster Bay, July 22.—President Roosevelt and Secretary Root resumed their consultation at Sagamore Hill today. Secretary Barnes said: "The president has not decided the exact date for calling an extra session of congress but November 13 is about the time."

Hurt By a Bomb.

Bialatek Poland, July 22.—Three persons were killed by the explosion of a bomb thrown at Chief of Police Plelekin last night and thirteen others, including the chief and son were injured.

Tobacco Damaged by Hail.

Versailles, Ky., July 22.—The loss from the destruction of tobacco by hail in Northern Woodford county yesterday is now estimated at $75,000. Many large crops are a total loss.

Jerry Simpson Very Ill.

Roswell, N. M., July 22.—Jerry Simpson, former member of congress from Kansas, and variously called "Socks Simpson," and the "Sage of Medicine Lodge," is critically ill here.

Queen & Crescent Wrecked.

Birmingham, Ala., July 22.—A fast northbound Queen & Crescent train was wrecked this morning at Whitley. Two coaches and three sleepers left the track. No one was killed, but several passengers were injured.

BOSTON MEN AFTER PUBLIC PROPERTIES

The Street Car Company, The Gas Company, and Heating Plant in the Deal.

CAPITALIZATION AND BOND INDEBT-
EDNESS OF COMPANIES $1,440,000

Local People Will Retain Interest---$300,000 For Local Improvements.

The Stone and Webster company of Boston, Mass., has secured an option on the Paducah City Railway company, the Paducah Gas and Fuel company and the Paducah Heating company, and the sale of the properties will probably be made in the next few weeks. Representatives of this company have been in the city for several days going over the properties and the books of the companies, and will make their reports to the headquarters of the company next week, and in all probability a sale made.

The deal will be the biggest ever made in the history of the city, and will mean more to Paducah than anything that has happened to it in years.

THE PROPERTIES.

The capitalization and issues of the companies are as follows:

The Paducah City Railway.

Capital Stock, - - - - $300,000
Bonds, - - - - - 690,000

The Gas Company.

Capital Stock, - - - - $200,000
Bonds, - - - - - 100,000

The Heating Company.

Capital Stock, - - - - $100,000
Bonds, - - - - - 50,000

Total of all properties, $1,440,000

The principal owners of the properties are: Jos. L. Friedman, J. W. Keller, Geo. C. Thompson, A. S. Thompson, Geo. C. Wallace, Jas. C. Utterback, S. B. Hughes and W. F. Paxton, of Paducah, and Max B. Nahm, Bowling Green.

The Officers.

The street car company: Geo. C. Thompson, president, Geo. C. Wallace vice-president and general manager, and A. S. Thompson, superintendent.

Mr. J. C. Utterback is president of the Gas company, and Mr. S. B. Hughes president of the Heating Company.

A Big Thing For Paducah.

If the deal is consummated, these gentlemen will continue to be interested in the properties and other local people will probably also be interested, about 30 per cent of holdings being allotted to Paducah interests and representation on the board of directors accorded them. Just who will be on the new board of directors is a detail for later consideration. The consideration of the deal is not given out, but it is known that the Paducah people make a good sale and a lot of foreign capital will be brought into the city, probably $750,000. $25,000 was paid today as evidence of good faith.

In a statement to the press today, a representative of the Stone and Webster company said: "We have investigated the conditions of these properties thoroughly and also made a study of your city and its promises for the future and we are satisfied with both, and if everything is worked out properly we shall become interested in these properties. If we do, we shall expend a big sum, probably $300,000 to $400,000 on extensions of the street car lines and the gas mains, and in a general improvement of the properties. This would mean new cars, better tracks and everything conducive to good service. When we go into a city, we try to assist in its growth and development, and we shall certainly do the same for your city."

Street Cars to Mechanicsburg.

While nothing definite, of course, has been decided upon, it is an accepted conclusion that Mechanicsburg would be the first part of the city to get the extensions of both the car lines and the gas mains, and that means a big thing for that part of the city and its residents.

The present mileage of the car lines is 16 miles and it is the intention to increase this to about 25.

The Stone and Baker Co.
The Stone and Webster company of Boston is one of the largest corporations of its kind in the world, and its advent into a city means a big thing for that city. At present it is interested in electric and street car and lighting properties in the following cities:

Dallas, El Paso, Tex.; Jacksonville, Fla.; Savannah, Ga.; Tacoma, Wash.; Tampa, Fla.; Terre Haute, Ind.; Fall River, Lowell, Mass.; Canton, Miss.; Sydney, New South Wales; Galveston, Tex.; Minneapolis, Minn.; Columbus, Ga.; Houston, Tex., and Porto Rico, at Ponce, and others, in all 28 companies.

The company has been in existence for years and it is conceded that their systems of railways and electric properties are the best conducted in the country. With an organization such as they must have the reasons for this can be readily seen.

The gentlemen in the city now are Mr. D. P. Robinson Mr. Elliott Wadsworth Mr. B. C. Parsons and Mr. John S. Bleeker. They are from Boston and are young men, and men who have made great reputations in their business. Mr. Robinson and Mr. Bleeker will remain in the city making further investigations and the other gentlemen return home Sunday. Mr. Bleeker will be the local manager if the deal is consummated. He has been manager recently of the Seattle system and comes to his work here amply fitted by education and experience to give Paducah as good a system as will be found anywhere.

The deal takes in, among other things, all the street car property, including Wallace park, the baseball park, and other properties owned in that vicinity by the street car company.

No Increase in Rates.

A Sun reporter asked the gentlemen interested if there would be any increase in rates for lights and gas, knowing this would be one of the things that will interest the general public as much as anything, and he replied that there would hardly be any increase; that, of course, meters would be installed everywhere, but this would no doubt be the only change from present conditions.

TOWN WASHED AWAY.

Cloudburst Practically Carried
Georgetown, Ind., Off the Map.

Louisville, Ky., July 22.—Georgetown, Ind., a town twelve miles west of New Albany, on the Southern railway, was almost washed away today by a cloudburst. The water in the main street of the town was three feet deep, and great damage was done to stores and other property.

Little Indian Creek, which runs near the town, became a torrent, and rising out of its banks spread over the surrounding country, doing much damage. So far as can be learned, no lives were lost.

VACATION.

For Your Summer Outing

Allow us to suggest Colorado and Utah, famous the world over for their cool and invigorating climate, magnificent mountain scenery and picturesque summer resorts, which are located along the line of the Denver and Rio Grande, "The Scenic Line of the World." Very low excursion rates and "Circle" tour tickets are on sale during the summer months via these lines to all the principal points of interest. The Denver and Rio Grande, with its numerous branches penetrating the great states of Colorado and Utah have some forty different "Circle" tours through the Rocky mountains, one of which in particular is the famous 1,000-mile tour for $28.00, which comprises more noted scenery than any similar trip in the world, passing the following points of interest: La Veta Pass, Poncha Pass, Toltec Gorge, Indian reservations, Durango, Mancos Canon, Rico, Lizard Head Pass, Las Animas Canon, Silverton, Ouray, Cimarron Canon, Black Canon of the Gunnison, Marshall Pass and the Royal Gorge. This trip can be comfortably made in five days, but at least ten days should be devoted to it, so that one may view at leisure the principal sights. Tickets at very low rates are also on sale at Salt Lake City, Utah. If you contemplate a trip through Colorado or Utah, let us send you some beautifully illustrated booklets free.

DOUBLE HEADER AT VINCENNES

Each Club Won a Game--Rain Interfered Here.

Paducah Left For Vincennes and Goes From There to Princeton, Remaining Out Eight Days.

HOPTOWN WANTS NEW LEAGUE.

How They Stand.

	W.	L.	Pct.
Paducah	55	23	70.5
Vincennes	46	33	58.2
Princeton	38	42	47.5
Cairo	34	44	43.6

Yesterday's Results.
Paducah-Cairo, no game, rain.
Vincennes 3, Princeton 0; first game.
Vincennes 2, Princeton 4; second game.

Today's Schedule.
Paducah at Vincennes.
Cairo at Princeton.

Rain Prevented Game.

Yesterday was Ladies' Day at Wallace park and a big crowd would doubtless have come out to witness the final game between the Indians and Mud Wallowers but for the rain. No game was declared early in the afternoon, the players realizing it would be impossible to play on the grounds even if the sun came out.

This makes a double-header necessary with Cairo the next time the Egyptians come. The Indians defeated the Mud Wallowers five out of five, and were laying up for the sixth straight. The rain is all that saved the poor one-time "Champions."

An Even Break at Vincennes.
Vincennes, Ind., July 22.—The local and the Princetons played a double-header yesterday to work off the games postponed from yesterday because of rain. Each club won a game. The playing was fair in each contest and the honors reasonably even.

First game:

Second game:

Vincennes	2	7	0

Batteries—Carnes, Beeker and Downing; Bonno and Mattison.

It is the same old league except it has new shoes, or is it a new league with new shoes? * * * Paducah has taken eight or nine straight games from the Tadpoles. It appears that Cairo actually gets scared when Paducah hoves in sight.—Princeton Democrat.

The members of the Evansville Central team claim that the water at Wheeling, W. Va., makes them sick. The Journal-News says:

"Buck Freeman returned to Evansville Friday morning, seriously ill, but he expects to be able to play on the return of the team Monday. Freeman says the men are suffering from the effects of malarial Ohio river water drunk at Wheeling. It was very warm during the series there, and the men drank freely of the river water, which the Wheeling management, with an unusual streak of parsimony, refused to ice. As a result of taking the warm water every man on the team has suffered, and not one is able now to play in his best form, says Freeman."

Sydney Echstein, one-time pitcher for Cairo and later umpire in general for the Kitty, was knocked out of the box in the first inning yesterday at Rock Island by Davenport. "Big Bill" Asher will join the Mud Wallowers at Princeton this morning. "Bill" wanted more money than Manager McCarty felt inclined to pay and it was thought for a day or two that he might not be willing to collaborate with the Cairo bunch in effecting the downfall of the pennant leaders.—Cairo Bulletin.

A New League for Next Year.
Now that the matter has been definitely settled, Hopkinsville will probably settle down into the same routine which she enjoyed before the Kitty was ever organized. It has already been suggested by some that next season a league composed of Hopkinsville, Clarksville, Russellville, Owensboro, Henderson and Bowling Green shall be formed with a salary limit not to exceed $500 per month but whether this is feasible or will ever be attempted remains to be seen.—Hopkinsville New Era.

Amateur Games.
The Famous baseball team will play the Metropolis team at Wallace park tomorrow afternoon. The battery for the Famous team will be Douglas and Brahic. The Famous and Metropolis teams have played four games, each team taking two, and this will decide the series, the best three out of five.

The L. A. L. team will go to Benton tomorrow to play the Benton team. This will be the first game with that team. The L. A. L. line-up will be exceptionally strong and the battery selected for the Marshall county game will be Block and Block.

On account of illness in the Central line-up, there will be no game by this team tomorrow.

Big Leagues May Merge.
Pittsburg, Pa., July 22.—Harry Pulliam president of the National league, gave out the following interview:

"A movement has been launched by several magnates to establish a twelve-club association next season by effecting an alliance between the National and American leagues, but I don't believe that it will materialize."

"That's not a pipe dream that came from Cincinnati concerning the amalgamation of the two leagues," said Pulliam. "There is more in that than appears on the surface. I have no definite news on the matter, but I'm inclined to believe that several magnates in both leagues have joined forces and will try to have a so-called trust established."

"I will warn the club owners against forming a consolidation. It will jeopardize the game. If the National and American leagues are

START SAVING TODAY
By making 'a deposit with the merged the game will be practically controlled by the magnates whose clubs are leading the race. It will be a fatal mistake."

Changes in the Minor Leagues.
Cleveland, July 22.—As a result of a conference of baseball officials yesterday the complexion of the minor baseball leagues may be changed before another season rolls around. At present there are four leagues which geographically conflict. There are the Iowa, Three I, Central and New League admitted to the membership of the National Association today.

Secretary Farrell, of the National Association and President Morton, of the Protective Association, are of the opinion that it would be a good idea to have the four leagues mentioned above re-distribute the territory. Such towns as Canton, Wheeling, Dayton and Springfield would not have nearly the mileage in an Ohio league that they have at present in the Central, while several of the Three I league towns might be taken into the Central league, the remainder going to strengthen the Iowa league.

Where Henderson Players Go.
Henderson players will probably not be seen in Kitty clubs the remainder of the season.

Charley French, who went to Vincennes to play second for the Sisters, refused to sign a reserve clause contract, though offered $100 a month, and went back to Evansville, where he will try to get on the team in the Central.

Outfielder Long, who was drawn by Princeton after the disbandment of the Hens has refused to sign an Evansville contract and will go to Minneapolis and join the American association.

Uhl, Stewart and Dennis have left Henderson, the former two to Indianapolis and Dennis to Anderson, where they will play with Independent teams.

Morgan, who accepted a Vincennes offer decided at the last moment not to take it, but will return to his home in Nashville.

Gilbert, who was said to have signed with Princeton has not yet decided to cast his lot with the Infants.

The players all more or less seem to be afraid of the four-club league.

THE TAXPAYERS

Must Come For Their Money For There Are Only a Few Days More.

During County Judge Lighthoot's visit to Lexington, Ky., Justice R. J. Barber acted as county judge, but about the only business he transacted was in paying back taxes erroneously collected by the sheriff.

Justice Barber stated this morning that he would give but one more week for the taxpayers to come up and receive the money back, and that the 27th, 28th and 29th of July would positively be the last days in which he would pay back money.

He has sent out postal cards to all who have so far failed to call for a return of money paid in excess of their taxes, and expects a rush next week. There are only a few hundred dollars left in the fund.

Book About Cadiz, Ky.

The following interesting notice is clipped from the June number of A. C. McClurg & Co's monthly bulletin of new books and will prove of interest in Southwest Kentucky.

The "Venus of Cadiz" (Kentucky, not Spain) is the title of a rather unusual book that Messrs. Henry Holt & Co. will issue shortly. It is a novel, but such a peculiar one that the author wavered for a while between giving it the sub-title of "An Extravaganza" or "A Comedy of Masks."

It is said that the author of the book formerly lived in Hopkinsville, but for a number of years has held a position as professor in the University of Virginia.

Washington Beat Us.

Washington, D. C., last Tuesday, undertook to take the record from Paducah, Ky., as the hottest place in America, boasting of temperature of 116 degrees. In the summer of 1901 Paducah's official thermometer registered for several days from 112 to 115. It should be said in behalf of Paducah, however, that the local weather man persisted in keeping his thermometer immediately under a tin roof upon which a beefsteak could have been nicely broiled.—Owensboro Messenger.

VACATION.

For Your Summer Outing

Allow us to suggest Colorado and Utah, famous the world over for their cool and invigorating climate, magnificent mountain scenery and picturesque summer resorts, which are located along the line of the Denver and Rio Grande, "The Scenic Line of the World." Very low excursion rates and "Circle" tour tickets are on sale during the summer months via these lines to all the principal points of interest. The Denver and Rio Grande, with its numerous branches penetrating the great states of Colorado and Utah have some forty different "Circle" tours through the Rocky mountains, one of which in particular is the famous 1,000-mile tour for $28.00, which comprises more noted scenery than any similar trip in the world, passing the following points of interest: La Veta Pass, Poncha Pass, Toltec Gorge, Indian reservations, Durango, Mancos Canon, Rico, Lizard Head Pass, Las Animas Canon, Silverton, Ouray, Cimarron Canon, Black Canon of the Gunnison, Marshall Pass and the Royal Gorge. This trip can be comfortably made in five days, but at least ten days should be devoted to it, so that one may view at leisure the principal sights. Tickets at very low rates are also on sale at Salt Lake City, Utah. If you contemplate a trip through Colorado or Utah, let us send you some beautifully illustrated booklets free.

DOUBLE HEADER AT VINCENNES

Each Club Won a Game--Rain Interfered Here.

Paducah Left For Vincennes and Goes From There to Princeton, Remaining Out Eight Days.

HOPKINS WANTS NEW LEAGUE.

How They Stand.

	W.	L.	Pct.
Paducah	55	23	705
Vincennes	46	33	582
Princeton	38	42	475
Cairo	34	44	436

Yesterday's Results.

Paducah-Cairo, no game, rain.
Vincennes 3, Princeton 0; first game.

Today's Schedule.

Paducah at Vincennes.
Cairo at Princeton.

Rain Prevented Game.

Yesterday was Ladies' Day at Wallace park and a big crowd would doubtless have come out to witness the final game between the Indians and Mud Wallowers but for the rain.

No game was declared early in the afternoon, the players realizing it would be impossible to play on the grounds even if the sun came out.

This makes a double-header necessary with Cairo the next time the Egyptians come. The Indians defeated the Mud Wallowers five out of five, and were laying up for the sixth straight. The rain is all that saved the poor one-time "Champions."

An Even Break at Vincennes.

Vincennes, Ind., July 22.—The 10-

cal and the Princetons played a double-header yesterday to work off the games postponed from yesterday because of rain. Each club won a game. The playing was fair in each contest and the honors reasonably even.

First game:
R H E
Vincennes ..... 3 6 0
Princeton ..... 0 3 2
Batteries—Bonno and Mattison;
Carnes and Downing.

Second game:
R H E
Princeton ..... 4 9 0
Vincennes ..... 2 7 0
Batteries—Carnes, Becker and Downing; Bonno and Mattison.

It is the same old league except it has new shoes, or is it a new league with new shoes? * * * Paducah has taken eight or nine straight games from the Tadpoles. It appears that Cairo actually gets scared when Paducah hoves in sight.—Princeton Democrat.

The members of the Evansville Central team claim that the water at Wheeling, W. Va., makes them sick. The Journal-News says:

"Buck Freeman returned to Evansville Friday morning, seriously ill, but he expects to be able to play on the return of the team Monday. Freeman says the men are suffering from the effects of malarial Ohio river water drunk at Wheeling. It was very warm during the series there, and the men drank freely of the river water, which the Wheeling management, with an unusual streak of parsimony, refused to ice. As a result of taking the warm water every man on the team has suffered, and not one is able now to play in his best form, says Freeman."

Sydney Echstein, one-time pitcher for Cairo and later umpire in general for the Kitty, was knocked out of the box in the first inning yesterday at Rock Island by Davenport. "Big Bill" Asher will join the Mud Wallowers at Princeton this morning. "Bill" wanted more money than Manager McCarty felt inclined to pay and it was thought for a day or two that he might not be willing to collaborate with the Cairo bunch in effecting the downfall of the pennant leaders.—Cairo Bulletin.

A New League for Next Year.

Now that the matter has been definitely settled, Hopkinsville will probably settle down into the same routine which she enjoyed before the Kitty was ever organized. It has already been suggested by some that next season a league composed of Hopkinsville, Clarksville, Russellville, Owensboro, Henderson and Bowling Green shall be formed with a salary limit not to exceed $500 per month but whether this is feasible or will ever be attempted remains to be seen.—Hopkinsville New Era.

Amateur Games.

The Famous baseball team will play the Metropolis team at Wallace park tomorrow afternoon. The battery for the Famous team will be Douglas and Brahm. The Famous and Metropolis teams have played four games, each team taking two, and this will decide the series, the best three out of five.

The L. A. L. team will go to Benton tomorrow to play the Benton team. This will be the first game with that team. The L. A. L. line-up will be exceptionally strong and the battery selected for the Marshall county game will be Block and Block.

On account of illness in the Central's line-up, there will be no game by this team tomorrow.

Big Leagues May Merge.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 22.—Harry Pulliam, president of the National league, gave out the following interview:

"A movement has been launched by several magnates to establish a twelve-club association next season by effecting an alliance between the National and American leagues, but I don't believe that it will materialize."

"That's not a pipe dream that came from Cincinnati concerning the amalgamation of the two leagues," said Pulliam. "There is more in that than appears on the surface. I have no definite news on the matter, but I'm inclined to believe that several magnates in both leagues have joined forces and will try to have a so-called trust established."

"I will warn the club owners against forming a consolidation. It will jeopardize the game. If the National and American leagues are merged the game will be practically controlled by the magnates whose clubs are leading the race. It will be a fatal mistake."

Changes in the Minor Leagues.

Cleveland, July 22.—As a result of a conference of baseball officials yesterday the complexion of the minor league leagues may be changed before another season rolls around. At present there are four leagues which geographically conflict. There are the Iowa, Three I, Central and New League admitted to the membership of the National Association today.

Secretary Farrell, of the National Association and President Morton, of the Protective Association, are of the opinion that it would be a good idea to have the four leagues mentioned above re-distribute the territory. Such towns as Canton, Wheeling, Dayton and Springfield would not have nearly the mileage in an Ohio league that they have at present in the Central, while several of the Three I league towns might be taken into the Central league, the remainder going to strengthen the Iowa league.

Where Henderson Players Go.

Henderson players will probably not be seen in Kitty clubs the remainder of the season.

Charley French, who went to Vincennes to play second for the Sisters, refused to sign a reserve clause contract, though offered $100 a month, and went back to Evansville, where he will try to get on the team in the Central.

Outfielder Long, who was drawn by Princeton after the disbandment of the Hens has refused to sign an Evansville contract and will go to Minneapolis and join the American association.

Uhl, Stewart and Dennis have left Henderson, the former two to Indianapolis and Dennis to Anderson, where they will play with Independent teams.

Morgan, who accepted a Vincennes offer decided at the last moment not to take it, but will return to his home in Nashville.

Gilbert, who was said to have signed with Princeton has not yet decided to cast his lot with the Infants.

The players all more or less seem to be afraid of the four-club league.

The Week In Society.

HAPPY DAYS.

The splendid summer days have come.

The gladdest of the year: The picnic sandwich has arrived. Excursion boats sail out of town.

While bands of music play. And circus tents are blowing down. On people every day.

This is the gladdest season when The lover and the maid Fight off mosquitoes, while they loiter Serenely in the shade.

The calf skips gayly on the mead. The winter's far away. And filled with merriment, we read Of sunstrokes every day.

—S. E. Kiser.

The Past Week.

Fortunately for the society devotees, there were only a few functions on the calendar this week. It was well that it was so for the heat has been oppressive. Next week's contains two dances and a number of minor entertainments.

Reception at Hospital.

A large crowd attended the formal opening of the Riverside hospital, Thursday afternoon and evening. Many ladies called during the afternoon hours, from 3 to 6 o'clock, while the men were invited in the evening to inspect the new building.

The arrangement was all that could be desired and the pleasant impression made upon the guests will long be remembered.

Excursion for Y. M. C. A.

The moonlight excursion given by the ladies' committee of the Y. M. C. A. on the steamer Dick Fowler Thursday evening was a very successful and delightful affair. A large number of people enjoyed the outing.

The boat left at 8 o'clock for Smithland, returning at 11 o'clock. Quite a neat sum was realized for the institution.

Boating Party Tuesday Afternoon.

Mrs. Mike Karnes gave a most enjoyable boating party Tuesday afternoon, leaving on the George Cowling and returning on the Dick Fowler last night.

Miss Alice Dodge, of Davenport, Iowa, and Miss Georgia Rion were the guests of honor. The others were: Miss Bertha Hill, Miss Maxwell, Misses Shelton, Miss Puckett, Miss Ella Bryant, Miss McCann; Messrs. Harry Gilbert, Frank Hill, Herbert L. Wallerstein, Bythe Wallace, Robert Black, Howard Shelton, James Ray and Melvin Wallerstein.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Entertain.

A most enjoyable affair was the dance given Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Will J. Gilbert, at Wallace park. Many guests were in attendance. Those receiving with Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert were Miss Florence Pell, Miss Marjorie Crumgaugh, Mr. Charles Alcott, Mr. Edward Noble, Mr. Eddie Clark.

Picnic to the Lakes.

A party of girls and boys of the younger society set enjoyed a picnic Wednesday on the Illinois lakes.

Party to Cairo on Dick Fowler.

Misses Blanche Hills, Lucille Crippen and Marjorie Scott, Mrs. John W. Scott and Messrs. Frank Davis and Morton Hand composed a party which went to Cairo Tuesday on the steamer Dick Fowler.

Miss Cox Entertains.

A function of rare beauty was the birthday dinner given Tuesday evening by Miss Louise Cox, at her home on Fountain avenue.

The table appointments, artistically carried out the birthday idea, pink being the color scheme. The centerpiece was the proverbial cake, done in pink roses, while candle sticks, with pink shades, cast a soft radiance over the festive board.

Covers were laid for the guests who were Miss Wisdom, of New Orleans; Miss Ruby Corbett, Miss Martha Leech, Miss Rella Coleman, Miss Lillie Mae Winstead, Mr. Robert Wallace, Mr. Charles Cox, Mr. Newton Adams, of New York; Mr. Grover Jackson.

Sanders Family Reunion.

Major George W. Sanders, the popular deputy United States marshal in this district, went to Mayfield today to attend the annual family reunion of the Saunders family, which is to be held in the southern part of the county. The family is one of the largest and most prominent in Graves county, and the reunions are always largely attended and most enjoyable.

The Mayfield Messenger says of the reunion: "Deputy U. S. Marshal G. W. Sanders and other members of his family are preparing for their big annual reunion held each year in this county. The gathering will be held at the old Feland homestead in the southern part of the county Saturday, that residence being the home place of the family in the years long since gone by. A very large crowd of relatives will be there to participate in the reunion."

WEDDINGS.

Leonard-Bliss Marriage.

Cards announcing the marriage of Miss Sallie Payne Leonard and Mr. Edwin Ward Bliss, of New York City, have been received in Paducah. Mrs. Bliss is the sister of Mrs. Wheeler Campbell, of this city, where she has often visited.

Married at Metropolis.

Mr. Joseph Hale, a well-known Illinois Central fireman, and Miss Pearl Sands, daughter of Mrs. A. T. Sands, of South Third street, went to Metropolis, Ill., Thursday and were quietly married. They returned in the afternoon and are at the home of the bride's mother, 1017 South Third street.

A Nashville Marriage.

A marriage Tuesday in Nashville,

Tenn., that will be of interest in Paducah, where the couple have relatives, was that of Miss Bessie I. Cohen and Mr. Joseph Simon. Paducah people who attended the wedding were: Miss Bessie L. Cohen, Mr. Joseph Simon, Mr. Fishel Simon, father of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. M. Simon and children, Mrs. Simon Michelson, Miss Sara Simon and Mr. Sam Simon, who was best man.

THE COMING WEEK.

Next Week's Dance.

Mr. Robert Wallace and Miss Frances Wallace entertain Tuesday evening, in honor of Miss Wisdom and Miss Headly, at the Wallace park pavilion with a dance.

Dr. and Mrs. Voris to Entertain.

Dr. and Mrs. Victor Voris entertain with a dance Thursday evening at Wallace Park in honor of their guests, Misses Elsie and Bertha Lee Shelley, of Dallas, Tex. This dance is to be quite unique, a white cotillion, the girls to wear white frocks and the men white trousers and shirt waists. The hours are from 8 until 12 o'clock.

About People.

Misses Elsie and Bertha Lee Shelley, of Dallas, Tex., are the attractive guests of Dr. and Mrs. Victor Voris, on West Broadway.

Mrs. H. P. Sights has returned from Henderson.

Mrs. George Bauer left today for Louisville to visit relatives.

Miss Mattie Hamilton, of Dyersburg, Tenn., who has been visiting her brother, Rev. W. W. Hamilton, of Woodville, was in the city yesterday en route to Clinton and Mayfield to visit before returning home.

Mr. Will Crow, of Ballard county, returned home today after a brief visit to his father, Coroner Jas. Crow.

It will be learned with much regret that Misses Mary and Evelyn Walker, who for the past three years have made their home in Paducah with their brother, Mr. R. W. Walker, will not return this autumn but will remain in Dyersburg, Tenn., their former home.

Miss Gertrude Champlain, of Jacksonville, Fla., returned home Tuesday after spending several weeks with Miss Ethel Brooks on North Seventh street.

Miss Elizabeth Woodson, of Owensboro, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. James Utterback, in Arcadia, returned home today.

Miss Elizabeth Headly, of Lexington, Ky., is the guest of Miss Francis Wallace, at her country place in Arcadia.

Miss Jessie Wisdom, of New Orleans, has returned from attending a house party in Memphis, Tenn., and is again the charming guest of Miss Frances Wallace.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Herman, of St. Louis, will arrive in the city Sunday to spend the day with relatives.

Councilman John G. Rehkopf, wife and child, went to Beaver Dam, Ill., to join a fishing party. They will be gone until the middle of next week.

Miss Nellie Gockel, daughter of Mr. Joseph Gockel, of South Fifth street, is visiting in Golconda, Ill.

Miss Nellie Hendrick, of Smithland, was here yesterday en route home from Princeton.

Mrs. Rosa Ellithorpe left for Memphis today to join her husband, who has accepted a position in that city.

Miss Mamie Graves, of Dyersburg, is visiting Mrs. C. T. Glenn, on South Fourth street.

Miss Edie George is visiting relatives in Northern Virginia.

Mrs. S. L. Anderson is quite sick at her home on South Fourth street. Mrs. J. T. Petty and son of Gulfport, Miss., have returned home after visiting the family of Mr. Frank Harlan.

Mrs. O. T. Davis leaves today for a month's visit to her parents at Salem, Ind.

Miss Grace Williams returned from Mayfield this morning after a visit to friends.

The Rev. Prentiss Pugh, a prominent clergyman of Memphis, Tenn., is visiting his sister, Mrs. Thos. Baskette, of West Broadway. He will preach tomorrow morning at Grace church.

Mrs. Fred Acker and sister, Miss Ella Housholder, leave this afternoon to make the round trip on the Ken.

Mrs. Frank L. Brown has returned home from visiting friends and relatives at Hawesville, Ky.

Mrs. Minnie Riddle, of Covington, Ky., has returned home after visiting her sister, Mrs. Wm. Ross, of Kentucky avenue.

James Hollingsworth and wife left yesterday for a visit to his parents near Paducah.—Fulton Leader.

The nice increase in our business since the first of the year is very encouraging to us.

BOY RECOGNIZED

TO KEEP THE PEACE AND NO FALSE SWEARING WARRANTS ISSUED.

Only a Few Cases of Minor Importance in Police Court This Morning.

Ward Wicks, white, who was charged with making improper proposals to Ella Burton, a young girl about 13 years, and with using insulting language towards the girl's mother, got off light in police court this morning.

The case was tried Monday and left open until today. Judge Sanders desiring to look into it and see if there was any false swearing. Both sides swore differently and Judge Sanders did not overlook the point.

In his decision this morning Judge Sanders stated he thought it best, under the circumstances, both the girl and boy being quite young, to recognize the defendant in the sum of $200 for his good behavior towards the girl for a period of 12 months. This held in both cases, there being a separate warrant issued for using insulting language towards the mother.

Robert Hall, colored, who is charged with breaking into the house of Frances Long, colored, and stealing $18, was granted a continuance.

MODERN GRAFTING.

"Graft" has become a rather comprehensive term, but a nice distinction is made between the graft that is akin to theft, and—well, just simple, everyday graft,—by Justice D. J. Brewer, of the supreme court of the United States. In a speech the other night at Milwaukee he devoted his time to modern graft, and incidentally praised President Roosevelt in his efforts to elevate public affairs.

Justice Brewer's elucidation of the graft question was in part as follows:

"For instance, trust funds are the funds of this insurance company, and this and that bank, and this and that trust company. We will take these trust funds, put our assets in their place and let the insurance company carry them until we can sell them with a profit. The company takes a risk of carrying them until such time as they can sell the assets, the insurance company may be able to pay its interests in full as it had been doing heretofore, but the men who have done this have not fulfilled their trust with an eye single to the company's benefit.

"Why, do you suppose for a moment that Mr. Ryan paid two and a half millions for property which under no legal circumstances could pay him more than 3 or 4 per cent interest, with the idea that all he could get would be this interest? There may be such philanthropists, but they are not connected with insurance companies.

"Take the President of the United States," said Justice Brewer, "Along last winter San Domingo put itself on a financial footing. Suppose the president had acted secretly, and advised his friends to buy up San Domingo bonds. Wouldn't that shock the people of the country? Yet the government would lose nothing and some would be private gainers. Suppose the United States supreme court justices would give out information in advance of certain decisions. Wouldn't you revolt at such a transaction? It would be unworthy—this would be grafting.

"A month ago today I was in Tennessee. I went to the Hermitage, where lie the remains of Andrew Jackson and I thank God today that there was another equally honest president," said the justice. "And it seemed as if I could hear falling from the lips of Theodore Roosevelt the words, 'Public affairs must and shall be pure and honest.'"

Justice Brewer could of course have mentioned many other kinds of graft, if he had had time. He could have told how many officials use public office to get private work, how they help elect men to minor offices in various cities and counties and get their trade ever afterwards—in short, how men in office, while perhaps honest and doing nothing downright dishonest, still make their public jobs of vast benefit to themselves in a business and social way.

The country is full of graft, but how are we going to get rid of it?

THE PUBLIC PROPERTIES DEAL.

A deal is pending for the street car company, the gas company and the heating company, and as its consummation would mean a big thing for Paducah it is hoped it will go through.

The Stone and Webster company, of Boston, the prospective purchasers, have a world-wide reputation for having splendidly managed and conducted street car and electric and gas companies, and for upbuilding any city they enter. If they come to Paducah, they will probably spend over $300,000 in extending the different systems and improving them, extending the lines for the cars and mains for the gas into Mechanicsburg and other parts of the city. As there is nothing that upbuilds a town like a good street car system, Paducah should felicitate herself over this deal. Real estate on the outskirts of the city and in the suburbs will be enhanced in value, and residents thereof brought closer to the town.

Paducah will welcome these gentlemen.

The board of works is right in declining to have anything to do with sub-letting the street contract. When the city awards a contract to a firm with the stipulation that it is to be completed by a certain time, the city should require the contractors to comply with it. Heretofore it has been the custom to award contracts to Paducah people who had never had any experience in the work, and knew nothing about it. They poked along and took their time about it, and were always given all the extensions they wanted, because they were "home people," and had a pull with the administration. The public always has to suffer from such proceedings, and it is to be hoped that the board of works, in its reply to the bitulthic contractors, will give them clearly to understand that they must complete their contract on time, and if they sub-let any part of the work, must do it at their own risk.

River men do not seem to understand the Tennessee river bridge matter. The Illinois Central is not and has not been, trying to sell the old Tennessee river bridge, and knows nothing, so far as we are aware, of the suggestion that the state buy the bridge. The Illinois Central fully intends to demolish the bridge, but as it is a good, strong structure and would be of excellent service as a foot and wagon bridge, disinterested persons have been trying to interest state officials at Frankfort in its purchase, believing that the structure could be bought cheap, and would be a splendid investment. Thus far the state officials have evinced little or no interest in the project, but the Illinois Central road has nothing to do with it, and does not even know that anyone thought of buying the bridge.

The plan of some of the city officials to create a hospital fund will go a long way towards placing the city hospital where it belongs. The hospital is in nowise a place exclusively for charity patients. In the cities the city hospital is often as fine as any to be found, and it is no disgrace to go there when one is ill. It should not be considered a disgrace or in any way undesirable to go to the city hospital.

to the city hospital here, especially since the new hospital is completed, and is in every way an institution that anyone should feel proud to be taken to if ill. If the plan of the officials is carried out it will be most beneficial to the hospital, and be a great aid in maintaining the institution, as well.

Paducah has a good chance to secure that big Methodist college, but must work hard for it. Already some of the papers in other cities that are after the institution are publishing elaborate arguments against Paducah, indicating that they fully realize that they have Paducah principally to fight, and will therefore concentrate their fire on Paducah. This makes it necessary for the Commercial club and citizens to work all the harder. A strong fight is going to be made by other cities, and we must be prepared to make our fight still stronger, for there are many obstacles to overcome.

The Bennington disaster has cast a pall of gloom over the naval department of our government, but it was one of those things that are unavoidable, perhaps, and at least are likely to happen at any time. It is to be hoped that the official inquiry will determine that this terrible catastrophe was not the result of carelessness on part of any of our officers or marines.

Louisville has a new saloon ordinance. It forces all places of this character to close at 1 a. m. and Mayor Granger has signed it. Now for the tug of war, which will begin in the police court and end in the appellate court.

FIVE SKELETONS FOUND.

Trapper Who Occupied House During Civil War Fled to Avoid Lynching.

Richmond, Ind., July 22.—Men engaged in dismantling an old house on Grake Island in the Kankakee river, which was occupied during the Civil war by a trapper named Steele, today found in the cellar wall of the house three male and two female skeletons. The finding of the skeletons recalls stories told by old settlers, who declare that an attempt toynch Steele was made in 1861 after he disappeared of a government agent named Barrington, who, while having in his possession $10,000 with which he was commissioned to buy horses for the government, passed the night with Steele. The next morning his horse was found in the woods, but no trace of the man was ever found. In 1861 Steele's wife and daughter disappeared.

Following the threatened lynching Steele fled. Since that time the house has been unoccupied.

REPORT CONFIRMED

Of the Attempt On the Sultan's Life Yesterday.

Washington, July 22.—United States Minister Leishman, at Constantinople, cables the state department confirming the reports of an attempt made on the life of the Sultan of Turkey yesterday. He says: "A large bomb exploded as his majesty was leaving the Mosque. The sultan escaped injury, but between thirty and forty persons were killed and injured and a number of carriages were wrecked. The perpetrators of the outrage were not detected."

Little Drunkenness Among Army Officers.

Washington, July 22.—A compilation of figures brought together during the review of a court-martial case where an officer of the army had been sentenced to dismissal for being intoxicated while on duty, shows that since 1890 there have been but seventeen cases sent to the war department for review wherein an officer is charged with intoxication. This list includes only regular army officers. The total was so low that even officials of the war department who follow courts-martial closely were surprised. There are about 3,800 officers in the army. The figures show that in 1890 there were no such cases, four in 1891, two in 1900, one in 1901, four in 1902 and another two in 1904.

KILLED BY TRAIN NEAR PRINCETON

Telegraph Operator Found Dead Near the Track.

G. W. Van Houser Was Here Yesterday Looking for a Position With the I. C.

HE LIVED AT CLAXTON, KY

G. W. Van Houser, a young man about 18 years old, who was in Paducah yesterday looking for work, was run over by a train last night half a mile south of Cedar Bluff, on the Paducah district of the I. C., and ground to pieces. Meager details could be learned of the accident as no one saw it.

Van Houser was a telegraph operator and had come to Paducah to try to get on in the local dispatching offices. He was unsuccessful, all positions being filled, and left for his home near Claxton, which is 55 miles north of Princeton. This was the last heard of him until this morning when his remains were found lying beside the track mutilated almost beyond recognition.

The body was lying near the track and was discovered by laborers and railroad men who were walking the track. The authorities at Princeton were notified and will hold an inquest today sometime.

There are no witnesses as far as the railroad men can find who can throw any light on the matter. The body was cold when found and the man must have been dead several hours. Many trains pass Cedar Bluff during the night and no crew reported any accident.

Little is known of the unfortunate young man except that he has people near Claxton. They have been notified of his death and the body is being held pending instructions from them.

His death might have resulted from going to sleep on the track while walking towards home, or by falling from a freight train while it was in motion.

THE FIRST

MR. REMUS BOYD TAKEN TO RIVERSIDE HOSPITAL TODAY.

Is One of Dr. Stewart's Patients—Only One Patient to Be Transferred From Old Hospital.

The first patient to enter Riverside hospital was admitted this morning at 10 o'clock. The patient is Mr. Remus Boyd, of Harrison street, an attaché of the Jake Biederman Grocery Co., who is suffering from an ailment which will necessitate an operation.

He is the patient of Dr. P. H. Stewart and was placed in the private ward fitted out by Dr. Stewart. The operation will be performed Monday by Dr. Stewart and other physicians.

On Monday Berry Baker, a telegraph operator will be removed from the old city hospital to Riverside hospital, he being the last patient to be discharged and will be transferred.

This morning the city physician discharged five of the seven patients in the old hospital, and a girl, one of the two remaining patients, will be finally discharged Monday and Baker will be the only one left.

The old city hospital will be closed as soon as Mrs. Sarah Birchett, the matron, can arrange to vacate, unless it is rented out for some purpose.

MORE THIEVING

IS GOING ON IN THE SOUTHERN PART OF TOWN.

Several Attempts to Break Into Residences Made Last Night.

Burglars continue to work in the southern portion of the city, but were not so successful last night as on previous nights.

Thieves tried to enter the house of Mr. Mat Hall, a fireman employed at the No. 2 station on Fourth and Elizabeth streets, but Mrs. Hall heard them and fired one shot from a pistol, succeeding in frightening them away.

The residence of Mrs. Miller on Broad street, next door to the Hall home, was also visited but nothing secured. The burglars were frightened away from Mrs. Miller's.

An attempt to break into the Jack Butler residence on South Sixth near Broad was also made. Neighbors noticed some one striking matches in an outhouse and called the family's attention to it.

The officers are keeping a strict lookout for the thieves and expect to catch them red handed before long.

WELL PLEASED.

Judge Lightfoot Thinks Reform School is Perfect.

County Judge R. T. Lightfoot returned last night from Lexington, Ky., where he took Charles Glenn, aged 12 years, and placed him in the reform school for three years.

Judge Lightfoot had never been inside the reform school and was unacquainted with the methods employed in treating the inmates. He decided to take the Glenn boy to Lexington himself and look into the management of the school.

Judge Lightfoot was greatly pleased with what he saw and will tomorrow prepare an account of his inspection. He stated that in his opinion it is as near perfect as possible, and that he is only too glad to be able to say a good word for the school.

SEIZED BY CRAMPS

HODGE WHITNEY DROWNED WHILE SWIMMING AFTER SKIFF.

His Brother and Another Man Almost Within Reach—Body Not Recovered.

The remains of Ma. Hodge Whitney, who was drowned in Tennessee river near the mouth of Clark's river a few miles above Paducah yesterday afternoon, have not been recovered. Mr. Whitney resided at 813 South Sixth street with his parents, and was foreman of the Paducah Sand company's digger, which was up in Tennessee river getting gravel.

A skiff, it seems, broke loose from the digger, and Mr. Whitney, who was a good swimmer, stopped the machinery, stripped himself and jumped in to swim to and recover it.

When within ten feet of it he began to shout for help, probably having been seized by cramps, and disappeared when his brother, Herbert Whitney and a colored man, were within fifteen feet of him.

After vainly trying to locate the body and bring it to the surface, they crossed to the ferry house and telephoned Manager Dan Fitzpatrick, in Paducah, and the Mary N. was sent up. The search for the body was unavailing, however, and later the dead man's brother secured a gasoline boat here and with a party of friends returned to the search.

Mr. Whitney was about 30 years old and leaves besides his parents two sisters, Mesdames A. C. and W. Mitchell.

Today at noon the work of dragging for the body was abandoned, all attempts to locate it proving futile. This afternoon the searchers will use dynamite with a hope of bringing it to the surface of the water.

The Proper Term.

(Jackson, Tenn., Whig.)
The Owl, a negro paper just started in this city, takes the following correct view of the name, negro:

"Many names are applied to the Negro. He is apparently dissatisfied with any name you give him but we shall call him a Negro. We are opposed to being called 'colored,' for we are not colored, we were born this way. We are not 'Afro-Americans,' for we were never in Africa; we are not 'black,' for some of us are—well anything—but black. We, therefore, shall use the word Negro."

This is the right name, is used by all informed writers and is not one to be ashamed of.

BASEBALL.

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, July 24, 25, 26 and 27, Chattanooga Giants vs. Paducah colored Nationals, at Wallace league park. Admission, grandstand, ladies 25c, gentlemen 35c; bleachers, 25c; boxes 60c. Games called 3:30.

SUBLET CONTRACT AT THEIR OWN RISK

This is the Way the Board of Works Looks at it.

Regular Meeting Held Yesterday—
Second Street Estimates Approved.

OTHER BUSINESS TRANSACTIONS

The board of public works held its regular meeting yesterday afternoon, the meeting being deferred Wednesday on account of the absence of Secretary S. A. Fowler.

The estimates for the work done by Contractors Robertson and Gardner on South Second street between Broadway and Kentucky were approved.

The board granted permission to tear up two additional blocks on South Third street when brick is laid between Kentucky avenue and Washington street. The board does not intend to allow the contractors on this job to tear up as much of the street as they desire.

Property owners on North Sixth between Jefferson and Monroe were ordered to repair the sidewalks, which have been in bad condition for sometime.

Property owners along Broad street between Third and Fourth were again ordered to move their fences off the public sidewalks.

The bond of the Southern Bitulithic company, to keep the streets they are to reconstruct under the contract recently awarded them, in good condition for five years, was approved.

A letter was received from President Ingram, of the Bitulithic company, expressing a desire on part of his company to sub-let the contract for storm water sewerage, to Gardner & Robertson, of Paducah, and the contract for that part of the job to be built of brick—from First to Fourth on Kentucky and from Second to Fifth on Jefferson—to Thomas Bridges Sons. The board instructed the secretary to write in reply that the contract had been let to the Southern Bitulithic company, and the city will look to the Southern Bitulithic company for a strict compliance with the terms of the contract. It may use its own discretion about sub-letting the work, but the city will have nothing to do with that part of it.

City Solicitor Ed Puryear was ordered to return to the board for signature the bond and contract between the city and Thomas Bridges for the sidewalks on Kentucky avenue, Jefferson street and cross streets.

AFTER THE COLLEGE

OWENSBORO TO MAKE A STRONG EFFORT TO LAND IT.

Hard Work On Part of Paducah Will Be Necessary to Land This Institution.

Owensboro is hot after the Methodist college to be located in Southwest Kentucky, and judging from the Owensboro papers, will work hard to get it.

The Messenger says: Prospects are good for the establishment of a Methodist college in Owensboro. It is certain that the Methodist Episcopal church will establish a college to derive its support from the bequest of Mrs. Fannie Speed, in western Kentucky, and Owensboro will put forth diligent efforts to secure it.

The Business Mens association will take the matter up at once and will send a committee to confer with the board of education of the Methodist Episcopal church, which is located in Louisville.

At the time of the last meeting of the Louisville conference it was generally believed that the school would certainly be located in Louisville. Since that time, however, the board of education has decided to place it in the western part of the state.

The consensus of opinion among prominent Methodist and others who are informed as to conditions, is that the college will be located either in Owensboro or Henderson. Paducah is in the Memphis conference, the territory of which is principally in Tennessee. There is little probability of any plan being devised by which that conference could co-operate with the Kentucky conference of the Northern church. Both Owensboro and Henderson are in the Louisville conference of the Southern church the territory of which is wholly in Kentucky, and which has already offered to co-operate with the Kentucky conference. Owensboro will use every effort to secure the school. Men's association will probably be called within the next few days to take action upon the matter.

Mr. H. C. Rhodes, of Paducah, who has been to Louisville, while there conferred with members of the board of education of the Methodist conference, and believes that Paducah's chances are good. Mr. Rhodes is chairman of the Industrial committee of the Commercial club, and is doing all he possibly can to land the institution. A final settlement of the question is not to be made until sometime in September.

To Repaint The Kentucky.

The contract for painting the interior of The Kentucky theater, was given to Mr. Chas. Warren yesterday afternoon. The interior of the play house will be decorated after the pattern of last year, the wall and pillars being water colors of red and white.

The Kentucky leaves at 5 o'clock this evening for the Tennessee river. The Dick Fowler left for Cairo this morning at 8 o'clock.

The Joe Fowler arrived here last night at 9 o'clock several hours late and left at 10 p. m. last night.

The John S. Hopkins was in today from Evansville and returned after making transfers.

The Reuben Dunbar arrives here tomorrow from Nashville and leaves Monday for Clarksville.

The City of Memphis leaves St. Louis this afternoon arriving here Monday at noon and leaving for the Tennessee river in the afternoon.

The Rees Lee passes here tomorrow on her way up from Memphis for Cincinnati.

The Peters Lee leaves Cincinnati this evening and passes here Tuesday on her way to Memphis.

The steamer Chattanooga, which has been at the bank for nearly a year, has been pulled out on the marine ways and is to be put in good condition. She was bought at government sale by Chattanooga men, who have formed a stock company, and it is understood intend to run the boat in the Paducah and Chattanooga trade, which is at present without a boat. It will be some weeks before the repairs are completed.

River men may rest content. Illinois Central officials state that the old Tennessee river bridge will be torn down, no matter who wants to buy it. Bids are now being taken in Chicago for the demolition of the structure, and the work will begin as soon as the contract can be let, according to the officials.

A Pittsburg dispatch says: Wednesday rains in the mountain districts promised a coal boating stage and the river shippers here have lost no time in preparing to send out several fleets when the water reaches the city. All the pool boats were ordered to bring the coal down and 100 barges are at the Pittsburg wharf being made up into tows. Fire was put under the boilers of the steamers Charles Brown, Ironsides, Joseph Waiton, Ed Robbins and Sam Brown. There was 15,000 bushels of coal in each barge, making a total of 1,500,000 bushels of coal in the fleet.

The City of Felsenthal, owned by the North Louisiana Shingle company, was burned and sunk in the Ouachita river, near Sterlington, late Tuesday evening. The flames spread so rapidly that those on board had to jump into the river to save their lives. The passengers were D. A. Beard, Jr., manager of the shingle company; J. C. Handy, Engineer McCoy, Pilot Pete Barr and Pink Roy. The City of Felsenthal was perhaps the fastest and best boat of her class in those waters and was built about a year ago at a cost of $2,500. There was no insurance.

Local caulkers who are now out on a strike, are receiving weekly $5 each from the general strike fund set aside for this purpose. Every morning those who are out on a strike report at headquarters and have their names enrolled, and at the end of each week get their money. At the Paducah Dry docks, the only firm working union caulkers under the new agreement, one force works a day and a half, and then quits to make way for the second gang. In this way each caulker works a little each week.

HIDDEN TREASURE

Is Sought by Aged Negro Who Wants to Dig for It.

Nashville, Tenn., July 22.—An aged negro, Silas Johnson, has applied to the board of public works for permission to dig in the property now occupied by the Prewitt Spurr Manufacturing Co. on the east bank of the Cumberland river. He says his master buried $11,000 in gold at that place in 1862, before leaving to join the Confederate army, that he was killed in one of the battles in Virginia and the gold has never been dug up. The negro says he alone knows the place where the gold may be found.

The place where he says the gold is buried was woodland in 1862. The permit was not granted.

PIATT WILL STAY.

He Consents to Remain in the Paducah Team.

Wiley Piatt, king of twirlers in the Kitty league, will continue to wear a Paducah uniform and has reconsidered his decision to quit the team.

Piatt had been accused of being out of condition and he denied the charge, and is largely sustained by the result of his work. He has worked harder than any other pitcher in the league. He has lost three games out of 24, an enviable record.

President Gus Thompson and other members of the local association prevailed upon him to remain and the big twirler consented.

Piatt will join the team in Princeton on Monday. He will tonight go to Cairo and play with a Cairo team against a Missouri team, pitching the game for a handsome little sum.

FEW CHANGES

Made in the New Time Card Effective Tomorrow.

A new time card for the Louisville division, Cairo extension and Hopkinsville branch of the I. C. will go into effect tomorrow at noon. There are few changes, and they will affect Paducah but little.

The freight service is the greatest affected but two passenger trains have changed in schedule time.

Passenger train No. 101 which now arrives from Louisville at 6:10 o'clock p. m. will come in at 6:40 p. m.

The Cairo and Hopkinsville accommodation train No. 836 from Cairo to Hopkinsville which now gets in at 8:30 p. m., will arrive at 8:10 p. m.

LAND OPENING.

Over one million acres of land in the Vintail Indian Reservation in eastern Utah will be opened for settlement August 1st at Grand Junction, Colorado, and at Vernal, Price and Provo, Utah, and continue until 6:00 p. m., August 12th. The drawing for these lands will be held at Provo, Utah, August 17th, making of entries will begin at Vernal August 28th. The shortest route to Grand Junction and other points of registration from Denver and all points east, is via the Colorado Midland railway, this line being 72 miles shorter than any other. For parties desiring to outfit to enter this reservation, Grand Junction is the best point from which to make start. For information as to train service, rates etc., write or apply to G. H. ## The Return of SHERLOCK HOLMES

By A. CONAN DOYLE

Author of "The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes," "The Hound of the Baskervilles," "The Sign of the Four," "A Study in Scarlet," Etc.

The Adventure of Black Peter

No. 6 of the Series

"He was summoned once for a savage assault upon the old vicar, who had called upon him to remonstrate with him upon his conduct. In short, Mr. Holmes, you would go far before you found a more dangerous man than Peter Carey, and I have heard that he bore the same character when he commanded his ship. He was known in the trade as Black Peter, and the name was given him not only on account of his swarthy features and the color of his huge beard, but for the humors which were the terror of all around him. I need not say that he was loathed and avoided by every one of his neighbors and that I have not heard one single word of sorrow about his terrible end.

"You must have read in the account of the inquest about the man's cabin. Mr. Holmes, but perhaps your friend here has not heard of it. He had built a wooden out-house—he always called it the 'cabin'—a few hundred yards from his house, and it was here that he slept every night. It was a little single roomed hut 16 by 10. He kept the key in his pocket, made his own bed, cleaned it himself and allowed no other foot to cross the threshold. There are small windows on each side, which were covered by curtains and never opened. One of these windows was turned toward the highroad, and when the light burned in it at night the folk used to point it out to each other and wonder what Black Peter was doing in there. That's the window, Mr. Holmes, which gave us one of the few bits of positive evidence that came out at the inquest.

"You remember that a stonemason named Slater, walking from Forest Row about 1 o'clock in the morning two days before the murder, stopped as he passed the grounds and looked at the square of light still shining among the trees. He swears that the shadow of a man's head turned sideways was clearly visible on the blind and that this shadow was certainly hot that of Peter Carey, whom he knew well. It was that of a bearded man, but the beard was short and bristled forward in a way very different from that of the captain. So he says, but he had been two hours in the public house, and it is some distance from the road to the window, and the crime was done upon the Wednesday.

"On the Tuesday Peter Carey was in one of his blackest moods, flushed with drink and as savage as a dangerous wild beast. He roamed about the house, and the women ran for it when they heard him coming. Late in the evening he went down to his own hut. About 2 o'clock the following morning his daughter, who slept with her window open, heard a most fearful yell from that direction, but it was no unusual thing for him to bawl and shout when he was in drink, so no notice was taken. On rising at 7 one of the maids noticed that the door of the hut was open, but so great was the terror which the man caused that it was midday before any one would venture down to see what had become of him. Peeping into the open door, they saw a sight which sent them flying with white faces into the village. Within an hour I was on the spot and had taken over the case.

"Well, I have fairly steady nerves, as you know, Mr. Holmes, but I give you my word that I got a shake when I put my head into that little house. It was dripping like a harmonium with the flies and bluebottles, and the floor and walls were like a slaughter house. He had called it a cabin, and a cabin it was, sure enough, for you would have thought that you were in a ship. There was a bunk at one end, a sea chest, maps and charts, a picture of the Sea Unicorn, a line of logbooks on a shelf, all exactly as one would expect to find in a captain's room. And there, in the middle of it, was the man himself—his face twisted like a foot soul in torment, and his great bearded head stuck upward in his agony. Right through his broad breast a steel harpoon had been driven, and it had sunk deep into the wood of the wall behind him. He was pinned like a beetle on a card. Of course he was quite dead and had been so from the instant that he had uttered that last yell of agony.

"I know your methods, sir, and I applied them. Before I permitted anything to be moved I examined most carefully the ground outside and also the floor of the room. There were no footmarks.

"Meaning that you saw none?"

"I assure you, sir, that there were none."

"My good Hopkins, I have investigated many crimes, but I have never yet seen one which was committed by a flying creature. As long as the criminal remains upon two legs so long must there be some indentation, some abrasion, some trifling displacement which can be detected by the scientific searcher. It is incredible that this blood bespattered room contained no trace which could have aided us. I understand, however, from the inquest that there were some objects which you failed to overlook?"

The young inspector winced at my companion's ironical comments.

"I was a fool not to call you in at the time, Mr. Holmes. However, that's past praying for now. Yes, there were several objects in the room which called for special attention. One was the harpoon with which the deed was committed. It had been snatched down from a rack on the wall. Two others remained there, and there was a vacant place for the third. On the stock was engraved 'Ss. Sea Unicorn, Dundee.' This seemed to establish that the crime had been done in a moment of fury and that the murderer had seized the first weapon which came in his way. The fact that the crime was committed at 2 in the morning, and yet Peter Carey was fully dressed, suggested that he had an appointment with the murderer, which is borne out by the fact that a bottle of rum and two dirty glasses stood upon the table."

"Yes," said Holmes, "I think that both inferences are permissible. Was there any other spirit than rum in the room?"

"Yes, there was a tannin containing brandy and whiskey on the sea chest. It is of no importance to us, however, since the decanters were full, and it had therefore not been used."

"For all that, its presence has some significance," said Holmes. "However, let us hear some more about the objects which do seem to you to bear upon the case."

"There was this tobacco pouch upon the table."

"What part of the table?"

"It lay in the middle. It was of coarse seaskin—the straight haired skin, with a leather thong to bind it. Inside were 'P. C.' on the flap. There was half an ounce of strong ship's tobacco in it."

"Excellent! What more?"

Stanley Hopkins drew from his pocket a drab covered notebook. The outside was rough and worn, the leaves discolored. On the first page were written the initials "J. H. N." and the date "1883." Holmes laid it on the table and examined it in his minute way, while Hopkins and I gazed over each shoulder. On the second page were the printed letters "C. P. R." and then

WORMS

"I had for years suffered from what medical men called Dyspepsia and Catarrh of the Stomach. In August I purchased a box of Cascarets and was surprised to find that I had 'cured' a nagging, squirming mass left me. Judge our doctor's surprise when I showed him three feet, and in another day the remainder about the same length of a tape-worm that had been causing my misery for years. I have enjoyed the best of health ever since. I trust all suffering from what I call 'worms' will find relief in Cascarets. Lark Medicine Co., Louisville, Ky."

A NOTRE DAME LADY'S APPEAL.

To all knowing sufferers of rheumatism whether muscular or of the joints, sciatic, lumbago, backache, pains in the kidneys, neuralgia, to write to her for a home treatment which has repeatedly cured all of these troubles. She feels it her duty to send it to all sufferers FREE. You cure yourself at home as thousands will testify—no change of climate being necessary. This simple discovery banishes uric acid from the blood, loosens the stiffened joints, purifies the blood and brightens the eyes, giving elasticity and tone to the whole system. If the above interests you, for proof address Mrs. M. Summers, Box 48, Notre Dame, Ind.

came several sheets of numbers. Another heading was "Argentine," another "Costa Rica," and another "San Paulo," each with pages of signs and figures after it.

"What do you make of these?" asked Holmes.

"They appear to be lists of Stock Exchange securities. I thought that 'J. H. N.' were the initials of a broker and that 'C. P. R.' may have been his client."

"Try Canadian Pacific railway," said Holmes.

Stanley Hopkins swore between his teeth and struck his thigh with his clenched hand.

"What a fool I have been!" he cried. "Of course it is as you say. Then 'J. H. N.' are the only initials we have to solve. I have already examined the old Stock Exchange lists, and I can find no one in 1883, either in the house or among the outside brokers, whose initials correspond with these. Yet I feel that the clue is the most important one that I hold. You will admit, Mr. Holmes, that there is a possibility that these initials are those of the second person who was present—in other words, of the murderer. I would also urge that the introduction into the case of a document relating to large masses of valuable securities gives us for the first time some indication of a motive for the crime."

Sherlock Holmes' face showed that he was thoroughly taken aback by this new development.

"I must admit both your points," said he. "I confess that this notebook, which did not appear at the inquest, modifies any views which I may have formed. I had come to a theory of the crime in which I can find no place for this. Have you endeavored to trace any of the securities here mentioned?"

"Inquiries are now being made at the offices, but I fear that the complete register of the stockholders in the South America and that some weeks must elapse before we can trace the shares."

Holmes had been examining the cover of the notebook with his magnifying lens.

"Surely there is some discoloration here," said he.

"Yes, sir; it is a blood stain. I told you that I picked the book off the floor."

"Was the blood stain above or below?"

"On the side next the boards."

"Which proves, of course, that the book was dropped after the crime was committed."

"Exactly, Mr. Holmes. I appreciated that point, and I conjectured that it was dropped by the murderer in his hurried flight. It lay near the door."

"I suppose that none of these securities have been found among the property of the dead man?"

"No, sir."

THE COAL MEN

WILL ORGANIZE AT LOUISVILLE NEXT WEEK.

Retail Dealers From Kentucky and Tennessee to Comprise the Organization.

Retail coal dealers of Kentucky and Tennessee will meet in Louisville July 24-25, for the purpose of organizing a retail coal dealers' association similar to associations of coal dealers in other states.

The object of the organization will be identical with the objects of similar organizations among men pursuing other lines of business, and will be mainly to promote harmony and good fellowship and to adjust grievances.

There are many hundreds of coal dealers in Kentucky and Tennessee who are eligible.

Among the first matters to require the attention of members will be the election of officers and the preparation of a constitution which will be modeled upon the constitution of similar organizations in the north.

Perhaps the most important matter of all will be an effort to stop direct dealings between consumer and the mine. This problem has been wrestled with and settled in other states, and moving spirits in the organization believe that the matter can be adjusted in Kentucky and Tennessee. Promoters disclaim that there is any intention of raising the price of coal, or in setting prices.

Baseball Players and Foot Racers!

Louis J. Kruger, ex-champion long distance foot racer of Germany and Holland, writes, Oct. 27th, 1901: "During my training of eight weeks' foot races at Salt Lake City, in April last, I used Ballard's Snow Liniment to my greatest satisfaction. Therefore, I highly recommend Snow Liniment to all who are troubled with sprains, bruises or rheumatism." 25c, 50c, $1 bottle.

SAM HOODENPYLE

Buys An Interest in a Cripple Creek Theater.

From the following it will be seen that Sam Hoodenpytle has quit the stage and entered the theater business at Cripple Creek, Col., with very flattering prospects of financial success. Sam Hoodenpytle, whose stage name was Hood, made quite a success as a comedian in the West's Minstrels:

"S. L. Atkinson, of the Palm theater, in Cripple Creek, and Sam Hood, late principal comedian of the West's Minstrels, have purchased the Grand theater from Mr. O. L. Booth, and will take charge of it tomorrow, July 3.

"Mr. Hood will look after the management of the house, which is a sufficient guarantee that the people of Victor will have the best talent obtainable, as Mr. Hood is an experienced showman and knows just what the people want in the way of amusement. The house will be run in conjunction with the Palm in Cripple Creek, both houses changing people every Friday and Monday."

Hoodenpytle is well known in Paducah. He came here as bugler in one of the militia companies to attend the encampment in 1894, and liked Paducah so well he remained.

His first show experience was with the Buckskin Bill wild west, which was formerly owned by Messrs. A. S. and Fletcher Terrell, of Paducah.

Croup.

is a violent inflammation of the mucous membrane of the wind pipe, which sometimes extends to the larynx and bronchial tubes; and is one of the most dangerous diseases of children. It almost always comes on in the night. Give frequent small doses of Ballard's Horehound Syrup and apply Ballard's Snow Liniment externally to the throat. 25c 50c, $1.

Theatrical Notes

Thomas Dixon, Jr., has completed the dramatization based on his two novels, "The Clansman" and "The Leopard's Spots." The play, which will bear the title of the first mentioned book, will have its first presentation in Norfolk, Va., on Thursday, September 21. After a tour of the principal cities of the south, "The Clansman" will be taken to New York City for a run that is expected to last during the remainder of the season. Indefinite time at two Broadway playhouses has already been offered to Manager Geo. H. Brennan.

B. E. Forrester will present Florence Bindley next season in a new musical comedy entitled "The Belle of the West," book and lyrics by Harry B. Smith and music by Karl L. Hoschna. The season will open in Cincinnati late in August and is expected that the play will be presented in this city before the holidays. Mr. Forrester is holding time with one of the principal New York theaters for a run early in the spring of next year.

Indigestion.

With its companions, heartburn, flatulence, torpidity of the liver, constipation, palpitation of the heart, poor blood, headache and other nervous symptoms, sallow skin, foul tongue, offensive breath and a legion of other ailments, is at once the most widespread and destructive malady among the American people. The Herbine treatment will cure all these troubles. 50c bottle.

HEAVY WASHOUTS ACROSS THE RIVER

Both the Illinois Central and the M. & O. Suffered.

All Trains Delayed, But the Illinois Central Suffered Comparatively Little.

M. & O. USING THE I. C. TRACKS.

Considerable damage and delay have resulted on the Illinois Central and Mobile & Ohio across the river, from washouts, and most of the trains have been many hours late.

The washouts on the M. & O. were the worst ever experienced in the history of the road. In six different places between Cairo and East St. Louis the track was washed completely away. Bridges were washed out by creeks which have not been known to overflow their banks since the road was built and the rails are left hanging in empty space.

The damage to the Illinois Central tracks was very slight compared with the ravages of the flood on those of the M. & O. The worst washout on that road was between Makanda and Boskyville, but it was quickly repaired and at 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon all trains were running over it on time.

On account of the washouts on its tracks all trains, both passenger and freight, on the Mobile & Ohio were detoured between Cairo and Murphysboro by way of Coulterville over the I. C.

It is understood that it will be at least six days before the Mobile & Ohio tracks are put in condition to use and until such time as they are repaired the I. C. tracks will have to be used.

All freight of the perishable order which is now at Tamms is being shipped as rapidly as possible over the I. C. to its destination, as is all perishable stuff which is coming from the south, and it is thought that the road will have but little if any damages to pay for loss from that direction.

KENTUCKY NEWSLETS

Death in Trigg.

Cadiz, Ky., July 22.—Mr. Thomas Hendrick, a prominent citizen living on Little river several miles west of Cadiz, died of a complication of diseases. Mr. Hendrick was about 67 years of age. He is survived by a wife and three children, Arnold and Will Hendrick, of this county, and Mrs. Walter Atwood, who lives in one of the "Purchase" counties.

Boy Bitten by a Snake.

Mayfield, Ky., July 22.—The little son of Mr. W. B. Sullivan was bitten by a poisonous snake. He was pulling weeds in the garden, when he saw the snake move. He thought the rustle was caused by a rat, and calling his dog which was nearby, he thrust the weeds aside that the dog might catch the rat. But it was not a rat but a copperhead snake, and the boy was bitten twice on the hand. The dog was also bitten, but succeeded in killing the reptile. The boy was brought to town to the office of Dr. John Dismukes, Jr. By this time the hand and arm were terribly swollen and it was necessary for Dr. Dismukes to work diligently with them for two hours before relief could be given. The young man is in a critical condition.

Twenty Miners Overcome.

Owensboro, Ky., July 22.—Twenty miners were overcome by gas in a mine of the Deanfield Coal company, near Deanfield. The gas accumulated imperceptibly and most of the miners in that part of the mine where the accumulation was heaviest, were unable to walk when the condition of the mine was discovered by those at work in other parts. They were carried from the shaft by those who had escaped the effects of the gas. Several of the men are in a critical condition. Cal Simms was the most seriously injured and there is little hope of his recovery.

Suicide Compact Broken.

Newport, Ky., July 22.—A compact at double suicide from the Central bridge was broken by Patrolman Dieckman. The would-be self-destructors were Louis Garret, aged 28 years, and his 17-year-old wife, Helen, of 411 Monmouth street, Newport. They had decided to commit suicide, they said, simply because they were tired of life, and had arranged to leap into the water. Dieckman could hear the woman saying: "No, let me jump in first."

The voice of the man said: "No, you promised to let me jump first and I want to jump before you."

Dieckman grabbed the woman by both hands and pulled her on the bridge after she had climbed over the railing.

The husband started to assault the officer, saying that if he and his wife wanted to die in that way they had a right to do so. Both were arrested.

FROM EDDYVILLE

Comes Word of Impeachment of the Town Marshal.

Citizens of Eddyville in the city today brought news of the impeachment of Marshal "Hub" Gray Wednesday night.

They stated that Gray had been marshal for eight months, having been brought from Lamasco to accept the position, which was given him by a majority of the people, but that he began to drink.

The trial is stated, was held Wednesday night and resulted in a verdict against the marshal.

Sell Robertson, a well-known resident of Eddyville, was appointed to fill the office until a regular man can be elected.

WORST DISASTER SINCE THE MAINE

air and for a distance of nearly twice the height of the spars of the vessel.

It was immediately apparent that an awful disaster of some kind had happened. The ferryboat Ramona hurried to the aid of the stricken warship. Several tugs and other water crafts also rushed to her assistance.

The Rescue.

By the time the Ramona had arrived many of the sailors of the Bennington who had jumped into the bay to escape the steam had been rescued and removal of the wounded was being conducted in perfect order. At the time of the accident Commander Peck was on shore. The two officers as soon as they learned of the disaster hurried to the water front, where Young immediately took charge. On board the Bennington were presented terrible scenes. The force of the explosion tore a great hole in the starboard side of the ship. A section of the upper deck was carried away from stem to stern. Blood and wreckage was distributed over the vicinity of the ship adjacent to the exploded boiler resembling a charnel house.

The remaining members of the crew rushed into the darkened hold to search for their comrades. In the worst danger, and when it was feared the ship would sink, before she could be beached, the young officers and men stuck manfully to their posts. Lieut. Yales, executive officer, in charge of the Bennington at the time of the disaster, was in the aft cabin. He rushed out, to be met by a blinding, scalding cloud of steam as it swept the vessel. He found about thirty of the crew on the fore-deck all badly wounded. Only twelve men were able to respond to his call to man the boats.

The bodies of many of the men taken from the wrecked interior of the ship were mutilated almost beyond recognition. The faces of many were covered with blood and ashes. For a long time steam prevented access to the ship between decks where most of the dead bodies lay, and it was not until late afternoon that the last were removed from the boiler rooms. Several bodies were so tightly wedged in by a bulkhead that the woodwork had to be hewn away to free them.

A dozen or fifteen of the crew were blown overboard by the force of the explosion. Captain Wentworth, who was looking at the Bennington when the disaster occurred, says he saw human bodies hurled over a hundred feet upward. When it cleared away only a few men could be seen on the decks, while a number were floundering in the water. A boat was lowered from the vessel's side and most of them were picked up and taken on board. The shock of the explosion penetrated every section of the ship, blood and ashes being found as far as the stern of the captain's cabin.

Navy Department Appalled.

Washington, July 22.—Officials of the navy department and naval officers on duty in Washington were appalled when the news came of the disaster which had overtaken the gunboat Bennington. Acting Secretary of the Navy Darling and Captain Potter, acting chief of the bureau of navigation, were promptly in conference with a result that orders were sent forthwith to the commandant of the navy yard at Mare Island to send all possible assistance to San Diego. Another telegram was sent to the president at Oyster Bay conveying to him the news of the calamity.

The Bennington was under orders for Panama, where she was being sent to relieve the Princeton and was to have sailed directly from San Diego for the isthmus, but a report was received at the department announcing that the Wyoming had disabled a propeller, and orders were sent to the Bennington to proceed to Port Hartford and convey the Wyoming to San Francisco.

Worst Since Maine.

Washington, July 22.—Acting Secretary Darling said last night: "The accident is the most distressing that has befallen an American naval vessel since the blowing up of the Maine. The sacrifice of these lives is as truly made upon the altar of their country as if made in battle. These men died at their post and must always

Magnolia Blossom

Mrs. W. A. Hatfield, of Buckett, Ind., says:

I suffered for years with Falling of the Womb and Ulceration after doctoring with some of the best doctors and trying everything else with no benefit, until two years ago I began using your MAGNOLIA BLOSSOM, and I can now truly say that I owe my life to it. Every suffering woman would not only receive permanent relief, but would save hundreds of dollars in fruitless doctors' bills if they would use MAGNOLIA BLOSSOM. It is a pleasant treatment, and can be used by the patient at home. Ladies, take my advice and treat yourselves and believe me a true friend to suffering women. Yours truly, MRS. W. A. HATFIELD, Buckett, Ind.

WHY DO WOMEN SUFFER?

And from day to day endure all those racking and distressing complaints so common to the sex? Because they dread medical treatment of examinations, and prefer to suffer on in silence rather than submit to them. To this class a simple home treatment like MAGNOLIA BLOSSOM is welcomed as a blessing. Hundreds of women and girls whose life had been one continuous burden have been restored to health and strength by the use of this famous specific. One dollar for one month's treatment places it within the reach of all. Write the South Bend Remedy Co., South Bend, Ind. Our book entitled a "Book for Women" sent free to any address. ### 141 Casualties.

Washington, July 22.—The navy department has received a dispatch from Commander Young saying that Lieut. Peary and thirty-three men are dead; seventy-six wounded and twenty-one missing and that many are expected to die before morning. He adds that there were 141 casualties altogether.

About the Bennington.

Washington, July 22.—The Bennington was a three-masted schooner. She was built by N. F. Palmer & Co., March 3, 1887, her keel being laid June, 1888. She was launched June 3, 1890. She was commissioned for the first time June 20, 1891. She attained a speed of 17.5 knots on her trial trip.

The Bennington had four cylindrical straightway boilers, commonly called locomotive gunboat boilers. Each boiler was 17 feet 9 inches long and 9 feet 9 inches in diameter. They were originally designed to carry 160 pounds of steam, but the last log received at the department shows the safety valves were set for 145 pounds and that she carried from 135 to 140 pounds steam in cruising.

BOMB FOR SULTAN.

It Killed Several of His Suite, But He Escaped Injury.

Constantinople, July 22.—During the Selamluk here yesterday a bomb was exploded in the court yard at the Mosque, close to the sultan. His majesty was not injured but several members of his suite were killed or injured. Several arrests have been made.
